SIMILITUDES.

I never said to her, "My Sweet, Thou art the sweetest flower that blows";
But, "Thou art like to her, complete,"
I said unto the rose.

I have not said, "Thine eyes are stars";
But to those gazers of the skies—
Leaning beyond my window-bars—
"Your light is from her eyes."

Not yet, to her, have I made known
What she is like in Heaven or Earth,
Though all Best Things I know, do own—
Do show—her lovely worth.

Though they keep silence for my sake,
To be like her, they much rejoice!
They know that soon my heart will break—
Or lift to her its voice.

TOO ETHEREAL.

"Shall we go to this particular resort?"

"Well, I don't know. The booklet plays up strongly on the sunsets, the rainbows and the cloud effects, but contains very few specifications as to the beds, the baths and the fodder."

PATRIOTIC SERVICES AT CENTRAL UNION

Plans are rapidly approaching completion for the celebration of the Fourth of July at Central Union Church Sunday evening at 7:30 o'clock. Governor Frear will preside, Captain Rees, Colonel Schuyler, Major Dunning, and Major Long have been invited to occupy seats of honor upon the platform. Mr. Livingston is looking after the musical program, which will be of unusual interest.

The orator of the evening, Dr. Thos. E. Green, whose name is sufficient to win a crowded house anywhere in the East, and who is also a favorite speaker at gatherings of the Sons of the Revolution and other patriotic occasions, will speak on "The Red, White and Blue." Through misunderstanding, it was reported that he would repeat this oration on Monday. But he intends to deliver an entirely different address on that occasion.

The public is cordially invited. Doors will open at seven o'clock, and the organ will begin playing earlier than usual as the people are assembling. It should be a great evening for Honolulu, to be followed by a memorable day.

AMUSEMENTS

Old Strasburg.

Where they fatten the geese so as to get suitable livers of which to make the delectable pate de fois gras is the picture that will attract a great deal of attention at the Park Open-Air Theater this evening. Strasburg is an interesting place, for it has been the scene of more conflicts than any place in all Europe. The buildings are generally of the antiquated type and the style of architecture different from anything of the kind on the mainland. A comedy film will be "Choosing a Life Partner." It is of French origin and is full of exciting situations. Airships, shooting the chutes and bumping the bumps figure in the picture. George Milne will sing a new illustrated song and the little girls will sing an Indian song in original costumes.

The Art Theater.

For the week-end preceding the "Glorious Fourth" the management of the Art Theater have been very careful in their selection of a program which is sure to meet the approval of the big crowds that are bound to turn up on Saturday night as usual, and in the feature film (The Skipper's Daughter) you will find a true picture from real life, plenty of action and good photography. The scene is laid on board, one of the smaller lumber crafts plying on the Chicago river, and the subject is one of intensely human interest. In addition hereto there will be a varied repertoire comprising both comedy, tragedy and drama.

Band Notes.

The band will play this afternoon at the departure of the steamer Lurline. Tomorrow afternoon there will be band music by the local players on board the U. S. S. St. Louis, and tomorrow evening there will be a concert at the Seaside Hotel.

Because of the Fourth of July ceremonies on Monday the regular Emma Square concert will be cut out, the band to appear in connection with the fireworks display.
